Summer Reading Assignment

9th grade: Summer Reading Assignment
Charles Finney: Apostle of Revival

Overview: The Charles Finney School was named after the great revivalist, Charles Finney, whose life was dedicated to preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ by doing the work of an evangelist. His powerful sermons throughout the 1800's led to revivals or great spiritual awakenings throughout the northeastern United States, specifically in Rochester, NY and resulted in tens of thousands of conversions - lives transformed by the love of God.

Task: You will be responsible for reading "Charles Finney: Apostle of Revival" for your summer reading assignment. You can access the text on our website: <https://finneyschool.org/Academics/Forms-Resources>. There you will find a link to your text, which will be a PDF file labeled: 9th grade assignment text: Charles Finney - Apostle of Revival.
