Do Greater Things-Summer Reading 2023

Assignment: This summer, students will read Do Greater Things by Robby Dawkins. Here is a brief synopsis of the book:

Having gone through his own journey from doubt to belief, Chicagoland pastor Robby Dawkins now ministers and speaks internationally, and where he goes, miracles happen. In these pages he shares incredible stories of God using ordinary people to do the impossible. And he shows that, when you begin to have faith in the power of God, take him at his Word, and understand his love for you, you will see his power released in healings, financial blessings, and miracles of all kinds (Amazon, 2023).

Directions:

- Students must take Cornell notes on the material as they read. These will be collected on Friday, September 9th.
 - Find a link to Cornell notes pages here:
<https://www.honolulu.hawaii.edu/downloads/web/student-services/care-resource-notes-template.pdf>
 - Aim to take about ½ page of notes per chapter. Do not go overboard! Focus on the main points of the chapter, and any significant biblical passages that connect to the main points.
 - Define any difficult vocabulary you encounter.
- Students will also complete a writing component connected to the book on Friday, September 9th.
- If you have received this assignment and you end up signing up for Finney late, you are STILL RESPONSIBLE to complete the summer assignment. I will give you the assignment upon your return.

If you have any questions about this assignment, do not hesitate to contact me at the address above. I check my email throughout the summer.

Students will have to purchase this book online; it is not found at our public libraries.
